

QUALITY POLICY

Rob Surgical Systems SL is a Spanish company dedicated to develop best-in-class high precision robotically-assisted surgical systems, surgical endoscopic instruments and accessories for minimally invasive surgery (MIS). Our work is oriented to achieve innovative and efficient solutions that shall become in high quality medical devices.

The values we promote are:

- Commitment with regulatory requirements compliance
- Commitment with reducing risks related to our medical devices as far as possible
- Commitment with innovation solutions and science of excellence, oriented to address the current challenges of MIS by incorporating new solutions that also improve the sustainability of health systems
- Commitment with high technology from the perspective of sustaining innovation, applying continuous improvement strategies and considering the users as non-replaceable, but strengthening their tools
- Commitment with high flexibility design concepts to facilitate the use of new valued medical devices without compromising or creating dependency situations regarding the users
- Commitment to find safe, effective and efficient solutions with the help our technical team, the main value of the Company

The Managing Board is convinced of its principles and it is committed to providing human, technical and material resources to achieve these objectives.

El Prat de Llobregat, 19/02/2019

Jaume Amat
Chief Executive Officer
Rob Surgical Systems SL